

Land of Beginnings Festival An Outer Banks Original

a unique festival of exciting cultural, educational, and entertaining events

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

The Lost Colony 252-473-2127 info@thelostcolony.org

Laughter and best wishes mark day

(Manteo, N.C., April 8, 2008) –2008 Living Legend, Eddie Greene, right, was toasted by friends and congratulated by the more than 200 attendees at Monday's Land of Beginnings Living Legend Community Luncheon. Among those who spoke during the program were, from left, Sen. Marc Basnight, Andy and Cindi Griffith, and, not pictured, Marjalene Thomas, David Stick and Carl Curnutte. Mike Murray, superintendent of the Outer Banks Group of the National Park Service welcomed lunchgoers to the Pavilion at the Wright Brothers National Memorial; Pastor Rick Lawrenson of Nags Head Church gave the invocation; East Carolina Bank President Art Keeney presented the Living Legend Scholarship to Christopher Wexler; and Jon Cash of WAVY-TV was master of ceremonies.

BUSTER NUNEMAKER | NCARI
LAND OF BEGINNINGS COMMITTEE

###